

Why Use Child Protection Mediation?

Because It Works!

toronto mediation
centre

For mediation services call 416.603.3773

Child Protection Mediation has a new home

The newly established Toronto Mediation Centre (TMC) receives provincial government funding to facilitate Child Protection Mediation services in the Greater Toronto Area.

What does this mean for YOU?

- Everyone has a voice
- An OAFM* accredited mediator specially trained in child protection mediation
- Free service
- No forms required
- Referrals can be made at any point during your involvement with the family
- Emergency mediation available

How to make a referral

Call Toronto Mediation Centre at 416-603-3773

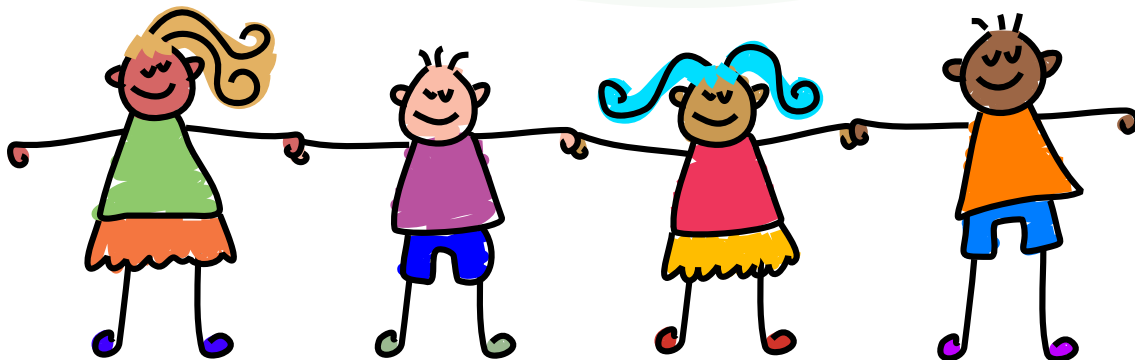

- The Program Manager will refer you to an OAFM accredited child protection mediator
- You contact the mediator

or

Visit www.oafm.on.ca

- Click on OCPMR Roster and call a mediator directly

* Ontario Association for Family Mediation www.oafm.on.ca

Who are the Mediators?

All the mediators on the OAFM roster are trained in child protection mediation. They know child welfare, alternative dispute resolution, family dynamics and cultural diversity. The mediators come from different professional backgrounds such as social workers and lawyers.

The mediators are located in different parts of the GTA. You can choose a mediator by a location that is convenient to you and the family.

toronto mediation
centre

Jan Schloss, MSW RSW AccFM
Executive Director

Karen Ehrlich, MSW RSW AccFM
Program Manager

60 St. Clair Avenue East
Suite 203
Toronto, ON M4T 1N5
tel: 416.603.3773
fax: 416.572.2653

info@tomediation.ca
www.tomediation.ca